~The Courses~

Harrisville Golf Course

Harrisville Golf Course is a 9-hole facility located in Woodstock, Connecticut. It is a vintage course with modern standards of turf quality, and a very comprehensive golf supply pro-shop. Courteous hospitality and good playing conditions are among the many qualities that make this course a favorite of the locals.

~~~~~*~

Vineyard Valley Golf Club

The 3,033 yard 9 hole course is laid out on a former vineyard, thus the name Vineyard Valley Golf Club. Sharply sloped, the course has three holes that either go straight-up or straight- down the hillside. The additional six holes go across the hill, providing for a tough variety of uphill, downhill and side hill lies. Rarely will you get a horizontal lie anywhere on the course. Regular breezes and awkward stances make Vineyard Valley somewhat more difficult than the yardage would indicate at first glance.

Raceway Golf Course

The 18-hole "Raceway" course at the Raceway Golf Club facility in Thompson, Connecticut features 6,412 yards of golf from the longest tees for a par of 71. The course rating is 70 and it has a slope rating of 111. Designed by Donald Hoenig, the Raceway golf course opened in 1947. Michael Pelypec manages the course as the General Manager.
